

PARS RUG GALLERY

Antique Rugs, Caucasian Kazak Rug (c. 1900 Persia)

Antique Caucasian Kazak - Famed for their rich colours, assertive, geometric drawing, drawing, and bold, large-scale designs, they are sought after by collectors for their rugged authenticity, authenticity, but they also make excellent accent rugs in a contemporary decorative setting. Whilst Whilst Kazak rugs may have all-over patterns, they are best known for their monumental and graphic graphic medallion compositions, especially the Sevan and Karachopf types. When they are preserved preserved with their original thick pile, the beauty of the colour and the lustrous quality of the the wool really allows the powerful design of these charming rugs to shine through. Bold geometric geometric design dee...

Height 298cm (117.32")
Medium: Wool and cotton
Width 116cm (45.67")