

PARS RUG GALLERY

Antique Persian Afshar Rugs (c. 1890 to c. 1900 Iran)

The Qashqai Nomads are found in the southwest of Iran and live in the provinces of Fars, Fars, Khuzestan and Southern Isfahan but have now settled in towns and villages, mostly in the the region of Shiraz. The tribe's willingness to assimilate with other ethnic groups of Kurdish, Kurdish, Lori and Afshar heritage has created a confederacy or melting pot that has sustained sustained their existence and diversity. The traditional craft of weaving carpets, Kilims, bags and and other decorative items of functional tribal art is a culturally important part of their their heritage. The field of the carpets has a typical red-brown ground color, highlighted highlighted with other natural shades of...

Height 250cm (98.43")
Medium: Vegetable Dyed, Cotton, Hand-Woven, Wool, Hand-Crafted, Hand-Knotted, Woven Width 134cm (52.76")